What makes Lotus House and Lotus Village So Special?

- Lotus House provides trauma informed, supportive shelter for up to 500 high special needs women and children nightly, offering nourishing meals, comprehensive support services, a therapeutic wellness center for children, neighborhood health clinic, education and job readiness training center, working classroom kitchen, healing hands salon, arts and activities lab, children’s play spaces throughout, and soothing gardens.

- Life to date, more than 85% of the women and children sheltered at Lotus House exited successfully outside the shelter system, thanks to a holistic, multi-faceted, comprehensive support system that heals, nurtures, empowers, and uplifts women and children to build new lives.
- So much more than shelter, Lotus Village is a center for innovation, best practices, service driven research, shared learning, and community dialogue for enlightened social and public policies to end and prevent homelessness.
